First Lutheran's Stewardship Team asks you to join our Summer of Generosity!

In John 21:15-19, Jesus instructs Peter to go out and "Feed my lambs" and "Tend my sheep." As Pastor Jeanette spoke about in her sermon on May 5, these are not just instructions for Peter, but for us all to go out into the world and tend to God's flock. This "tending" and "feeding" can take many forms, and so First Lutheran's Stewardship Team asks you to join us this summer in generously sharing God's love through sharing your time and talents doing kind or generous deeds wherever you find yourself. It's simple:

1. Start June 9 (You can start earlier if you want)
2. Wear your Thrivent shirt
3. Take pictures of yourself or others sharing your/their time or talents with others. Doesn't have to be in Worthington – take your generosity on the road!
4. Send pictures with a caption and names to Natalie by September 9:

"Music with the Klassens" will be the musical program shared by the talented Klassen Family consisting of mother, Danelle and four children ages 9 -22. They love to share the love of God with their instruments and voices. The evening's freewill offering will be given to Helping Hands Pregnancy Center of Worthington.
