

Dear First Lutheran,

On June 27, 2021 at 10 am First Lutheran’s Council is calling a special congregational meeting for the following reasons: 1) To vote on whether or not we continue in a relationship with Grace Lutheran, 2) to vote on minor changes to our Bylaws so our language matches the current language of the wider church and our Constitution, and 3) To vote on previously noted changes to the Constitution. The meeting will be in person and a Zoom option will also be available.

We will not be voting on calling Jon Wendt – he will be graduating from Seminary next year and will then be up for a call for the church at large – and we will not be voting on other staffing changes.

Many of you have already participated in meetings to learn about the proposed relationship with Grace Lutheran. Thank you for taking the time to do so. If you have not been able to attend such meetings, please call a council representative or Pr. Jeanette for further discussion.

Gratefully, First Lutheran Council
